

COMFORT ZONE

This questionnaire is useful for reflecting on radicalization problem and its prevention.

Complete the form to identify your comfort zone and to work on the ones that you don't feel comfortable on:

	Not comfortable	Fairly comfortable	Completely comfortable
1. Are you comfortable to provide a space to group of young people to discuss issues on radicalisation
2. Are you happy to be approached by young people who want to discuss about radicalisation
3. Do you feel comfortable in managing disagreement arising from the group discussions regarding "race", religion and culture
4. Do you feel comfortable addressing the racist behaviour of an individual in a group
5. Suspected radicalisation reported to you-how do you manage it
6. Young people sit in a group based on ethnicity -challenge
7. Do you address situations where an individual is challenged because of "race" and religion
8. Individuals in the group are prejudiced against you because of your "race", religion or beliefs how comfortable are you in challenging it
9. Are you comfortable in the group obvious manifestation of their religion: eg hijab, wearing a cross
10. Are you comfortable with discussions where political standpoints and ideologies are expressed that different from your own
11. Do you feel you have a deep knowledge of issues that are important to young people?
12. Are you comfortable and confident in dealing with situations where young people openly glorify and advocate violence against other groups of people?

